

Shook Names New Office Managing Partner in Tampa

TAMPA (July 18, 2023) Shook, Hardy & Bacon is pleased to announce that Partner Terri Parker has been promoted as the managing partner of Shook's Tampa location effective July 1, 2023. Parker, a skilled litigator, hopes to expand Shook's services in the Bay area and nationally.

"One of our goals is to attract laterals in a variety of areas including business litigation and IP," said Parker, a litigator who serves clients in Florida and nationally. "Diversifying our services beyond product liability will deepen our bench and help us become better known in the Tampa Bay area."

Parker joined the legal profession with 15 years of operations and management experience for a Fortune 500 insurance and financial services company. This professional experience, along with an Executive MBA, provide Parker with a unique understanding and passion for defending corporations.

Shook clients include many of the world's largest multinational companies in the pharmaceutical and medical device, life sciences and biotechnology, banking and financial services, and retail industries.

Shook Tampa has a long tradition of providing pro bono service and that tradition will continue under Parker's leadership. Parker has led Shook Tampa's pro bono efforts for more than 10 years and during that tenure the office was awarded the 2021 and 2012 Outstanding Pro Bono Service by a Law Firm award given by Florida's Thirteenth Judicial Circuit. Shook Tampa attorneys have served as attorneys ad litem (AALs) for children in foster care and those with delinquency charges who are not in foster care, to ensure that children have a voice in and out of the courtroom.

Former Tampa Managing Partner Jennifer Voss will return to practicing law full time.
