CHLI Welcomes New Board and Advisory Council Members

Washington, DC – The Congressional Hispanic Leadership Institute (CHLI) welcomes Isaac Reyes, Vice President of Government Affairs with Target Corporation to the CHLI Board of Directors and Frank Cruz-Alvarez with Shook, Hardy & Bacon, L.L.P as CHLI's Pro-Bono General Counsel.

In addition, CHLI welcomes Donnica Hawes-Saunders, Partnerships Manager for Global Communications at Philip Morris International (PMI); and Ilia Rodriguez, Senior Manager for Government Relations at Accenture to the CHLI Advisory Council.

The CHLI would like to extend a thank you to former Board Members, Susan Santana with AT&T, Christopher Turner with Dell, and Patrice Webb with the American Beverage Association, for their contributions to the organization throughout the years. "Their collective contributions to CHLI, its programs, interns and alumni are forever appreciated," said CHLI President & CEO, Mary Ann Gomez Orta.

The CHLI Board of Directors is comprised of United States Congressional Members and senior executives from major corporations. The diverse board share their time, talent and treasure to focus on the vision, mission and purpose of CHLI. They lead the organization, develop and provide quality programs to prepare, connect and honor leaders.
